Conflict of Interest Statement and Disclosure Form for Employees, Directors, Officers and Staff of IQVIA

The purpose of this form is to help employees, directors, officers and staff of IQVIA to understand what is or may be a conflict of interest, assist them in identifying and disclosing actual and potential conflicts of interest, and help ensure appropriate avoidance and management of conflicts of interest.

As stated in the IQVIA worldwide Code of Conduct, Doing the Right Thing, IQVIA respects your right to be involved in personal activities, business interests and transactions as long as the personal activities, business interests and transactions do not interfere with or restrict your ability to meet your responsibilities to IQVIA, negatively affect your job performance, or conflict with IQVIA' interests.

You must avoid any activity, relationship, business interest or transaction that might conflict — or appear to conflict — with IQVIA' interests.

A conflict of interest may arise if you, your relative, or a close personal relation have a financial interest in, a job with, or serve on the Board of Directors of a customer, potential customer, competitor, supplier or vendor of IQVIA. A conflict of interest may exist if you or a relative directly or indirectly have financial interest in any company that competes, does business or seeks to do business with IQVIA, or if you or a relative have a personal financial interest in a transaction involving a IQVIA customer, competitor, or vendor.

A conflict of interest may also arise if you, your relative, or a close personal relation hold a position within a government or public entity.

You must disclose any interests in or positions you hold with customers, potential customers, competitors, suppliers, vendors, or government or public entities. This does not apply to a personal investment in publicly traded mutual funds that may include the stock of a customer, vendor or competitor of IQVIA.

You must disclose potential conflicts of interest when they arise. You must also take any actions deemed by IQVIA as being necessary to address your situation. Most conflicts of interest can be resolved in a mutually acceptable way.

Please complete and sign the certification which follows on the next page.

PRIVACY NOTICE

This document requires that you provide IQVIA with certain personal information about yourself and, potentially, other parties related to you. This includes information such as your name, contact details, and business associations you might have or associations you might have with government or public officials.
